

Our Services & How to Apply

ABOUT GEORGIA JUSTICE PROJECT

Georgia Justice Project (GJP) has served Georgians affected by the criminal legal system for 35 years. GJP's range of services include holistic criminal defense, as well as representation for criminal records issues, for people who cannot afford an attorney. GJP believes in second chances after an arrest, and works to remove barriers to employment, housing, and other opportunities faced by those with a criminal record. Learn how to apply for our services below or at www.GJP.org.

Holistic Criminal Defense

GJP's holistic criminal defense combines zealous legal advocacy with social services support. It is best to apply as soon as possible after arrest.

GJP represents clients who are:

- facing misdemeanor or felony charges in Fulton and DeKalb Counties
- serving lengthy probation sentences and seeking early termination.

How to Apply:

- Criminal Defense Intake: (404) 827-0027 ext. 231
- Direct Call from Fulton County Jail: (404) 524-4873
- Probation help: Probation@GJP.org

Criminal Records Representation

GJP assists individuals who have a Georgia criminal history & face barriers to opportunity. We assist with:

- restriction and sealing (expungement)
- record corrections
- pardons

In some instances we may be able to assist with:

- child support debt impacted by incarceration
- occupational licensing denial due to a criminal record.

How to Apply:

For criminal records issues:

- E-mail: intake@GJP.org
- Call (404) 827-0027 ext. 238

For occupational licensing issues:

- Email: Emmy@GJP.org

For child support debt issues:

- E-mail: legal@GJP.org
- Call (404) 827-0027, ext. 231

Community Engagement

GJP works statewide to educate individuals and service providers. Topics include but are not limited to:

- Criminal Records & Pardons
- Probation
- Reentry
- Child support debt issues for low income families
- First 48 Hours of Arrest - Know Your Rights
- Educational videos

Learn More:

To learn more about our "First Fridays" Criminal Records Presentations, visit:

www.GJP.org/first-fridays