

Our Services & How to Apply

ABOUT GEORGIA JUSTICE PROJECT

For 35 years, Georgia Justice Project (GJP) has served Georgians impacted by the criminal legal system. GJP believes in second chances after an arrest, and works to remove barriers to employment, housing, and other opportunities faced by those with a criminal record. Learn how to apply for our services below or at www.GJP.org.

Holistic Criminal Defense

GJP's holistic criminal defense combines zealous legal advocacy with social services support. It is best to apply as soon as possible after arrest.

GJP represents clients who are:

- facing misdemeanor or felony charges in Fulton and DeKalb Counties
- serving lengthy probation sentences and seeking early termination.

How to Apply:

- Criminal Defense Intake: Call (404) 827-0027, ext. 231, or email IntakeDefense@GJP.org
- Early Termination of Probation help: see GJP.org/probation or email Probation@GJP.org

Criminal Records Representation

GJP assists individuals who have a Georgia criminal history & face barriers to opportunity. We assist with:

- restriction and sealing (expungement)
- record corrections
- pardons

In some instances, we may be able to assist with:

- occupational licensing denial due to a criminal record.

How to Apply:

For criminal records issues:

- E-mail Intake@GJP.org
- Call (404) 827-0027 ext. 238

The first step in the intake process (and to learn more), attend a "First Friday" presentation:

- GJP.org/first-fridays

Community Engagement

GJP works statewide to educate individuals, service providers and employers. Topics include but are not limited to:

- Criminal Records & Pardons
- Probation
- Reentry
- Driver's License Suspensions
- Voting Rights for people with felony convictions
- Criminal legal system and mass incarceration
- Employer education/second chance hiring
- Legislative policies that reduce barriers to reentry

For more information:

- Visit GJP.org/resources
- Contact Ann@GJP.org